A young boy is the central figure, dressed as an aviator. He wears a dark leather flight helmet with a white fur trim and a pair of large, round goggles with teal lenses. A teal scarf is draped around his neck. He is sitting on a dark wooden deck, with his arms outstretched to the sides. To his left, a wooden toy airplane is lying on its side. The background is a blurred, textured surface, possibly a wall or a large piece of stone. The overall tone is nostalgic and aspirational.
